The Card is intended for use as a means of payment, and funds loaded onto the Account do not constitute a deposit. You will not earn interest on the balance of the Account. 13. PURCHASES FROM RETAILERS

- 13.1 We are not responsible for the safety, legality, quality or any other aspect of the goods and services purchased with the Card(s).
- 13.2 Where a retailer provides a refund for any reason (for example, if You return the goods as faulty) it can take several days for the notification of the refund and the money itself to reach Us. It may take up to 10 days from the date the refund was carried out for the refund to be applied to Your Account. Until the refund reaches your Account, You shall not be able to use the sum of the refund for other uses.

14. TRANSACTION DISPUTES, CARD SUSPENSION AND REFUNDS

- 14.1 If You believe You or the Additional Cardholder did not authorise a particular transaction or that a transaction (or other use of the Account) was incorrectly carried out, in order to get a refund You must contact Our Customer Services team without undue delay - as soon as You notice the problem, and in any case no later than 13 months after the amount of the transaction (or other use) has been deducted from the Account. We will immediately (and no later than close of business on the day the refund was requested) refund any unauthorised transaction and any associated transaction fees and charges payable under this Agreement subject to the rest of this clause 14. If the refund request is received on a non-Business Day or after 4:30 pm (Israel time) on a Business Day, We will make the refund at the beginning of the next Business Day. If We are liable for an incorrectly executed transaction, We will refund without undue delay the transaction and any associated transaction fees and charges payable under this Agreement. Depending on the circumstances, Our Customer Services team may require You to complete a dispute declaration form. We may conduct an investigation either before or after any refund has been made. We will let You know as soon as possible the outcome of any such investigation
- 14.2 A payment order will be deemed to be executed correctly where it is executed in accordance with the UPI. Where the UPI that was provided to Us is incorrect, We will not be liable for non-execution or defective execution of the transaction, but We will make reasonable efforts to recover the funds involved.
- 14.3 Where losses arise from the use of a lost or stolen Card(s), or from Your or Your Additional Cardholder's failure to keep your security details safe, You will be liable up to the amounts determined according to the law subject to the rest of this clause 14.
- 14.4 You will be liable for all losses incurred in respect of an unauthorised transaction or other uses of the Account if: (i) You or the Additional Cardholder have acted fraudulently; or (ii) have intentionally or with gross negligence failed to: (a) look after and use Your Card in accordance with the Agreement or the security details of the Account; or (b) notify Us of the problem in accordance with clause 11.1.

- 14.5 Except where You or the Additional Cardholder have acted fraudulently, You will not be liable for any losses incurred in respect of an unauthorised transaction: (i) which occurs after Your notification to Us; or (ii) where You or the Additional Cardholder have used the Card in a distance contract, for example, for an online purchase.
- 14.6 If Our investigations show that any disputed transaction was authorised by You or the Additional Cardholder, You or the Additional Cardholder may have acted fraudulently or with gross negligence, We may reverse any refund made and You will be liable for all losses We suffer in connection with the transaction including but not limited to the cost of any investigation carried out by Us in relation to the transaction. We will give You reasonable notice of any reverse refund. We will charge you a Failed Chargeback Fee if a disputed transaction is investigated and it is established that the money in question was correctly deducted from your Available Funds.
- 14.7 In case of incorrectly executed transactions (or failure to execute transactions) initiated by You as payer, We will be liable to You unless we can prove that the payee's payment service provider received the correct amount and beneficiary details on time, in which case the payee's payment service provider will be liable. On Your request, We will make immediate efforts to trace the transaction and notify You by email of the outcome of Our efforts. In the case of incorrectly executed payment transactions (or failure to execute transactions) initiated by the payee, We are liable where the payee's payment service provider correctly transmitted the payment order to Us. Where We are liable to You in accordance with this clause 14.7, We will, without undue delay, refund the amount of the incorrectly executed transaction and, where applicable, return Your Available Funds to the position they would have been in had the incorrectly executed transaction not taken place, provided that You have notified us without undue delay in accordance with clause 14.1.
- 14.8 In certain circumstances, a transaction will be initiated but not fully completed. Where this happens, this may result in the value of the transaction being deducted from the Available Funds and therefore unavailable for use – We refer to this as a “hanging authorisation” or “block”. In these cases, You will need to contact Our Customer Service team in accordance with clause 15 and present relevant evidence to show that the transaction has been cancelled or reversed.
- 14.9 In certain circumstances, We may refuse to complete a transaction that You or the Additional Cardholder have authorised. These circumstances include:
- 14.9.1 if We have reasonable concerns about the security of Your Account or We suspect Your Card(s) is/are being used in a fraudulent or unauthorised manner;
- 14.9.2 if there are not sufficient Available Funds to cover the transaction and all associated fees at the time that We receive notification of the transaction;
- 14.9.3 if there is an outstanding shortfall on the balance of Your Account;
- 14.9.4 if We have reasonable grounds to believe You or the Additional Cardholder are acting in breach of this Agreement;
- 14.9.5 if there are errors, failures (mechanical or otherwise) or refusals by retailers, payment processors or payment schemes processing transactions; or
- 14.9.6 if We are required to do so by law.
- 14.10 Unless it would be unlawful for Us to do so, where We refuse to complete a transaction for You in accordance with clause 14.9 above, We will notify You as soon as reasonably practicable that it has been refused and the reasons for the refusal, together where relevant, with the procedure for correcting any factual errors that led to the refusal, where the refusal is reasonably justified.
- 14.11 We may suspend Your Card(s), in which case You will not be able to use it for any transactions, if We have reasonable concerns about the security of Your Account or We suspect Your Card(s) is/are being used in a fraudulent or unauthorised manner. We will notify You of any such suspension in advance, or immediately after if this is not possible, and of the reasons for the suspension unless to do so would compromise reasonable security measures or otherwise be unlawful. We will lift the suspension and, where appropriate, issue a new Card(s) free of charge as soon as practicable once the reasons for the suspension cease to exist.

14.12 You may claim a refund for a transaction that You or the Additional Cardholder authorised provided that:

14.12.1 Your or the Additional Cardholder's authorisation did not specify the exact amount when You consented to the transaction; and 14.12.2 the amount of the transaction exceeded the amount that You or the Additional Cardholder could reasonably have expected it to be taking into account the previous spending pattern on the Card, the Agreement and the relevant circumstances.

Such a refund must be requested from Our Customer Services team within 8 weeks of the amount being deducted from the Account. We may require You to provide Us with evidence to substantiate Your claim. Any refund or justification for refusing a refund will be provided within 10 business days of receiving Your refund request or, where applicable, within 10 business days of receiving any further evidence requested by Us. Any refund shall be equal to the amount of the transaction. Any such refund will not be subject to any fee.
